

Mom,

JULY 21

It's me again. Your ~~son~~ ^{son} in the war zone. Things have cooled down a little on this end. All of your packages have made it with loving care. I'm sending more ~~film~~ film, so your bound to get at least one roll. I'm on Jamie now and I get a little free time.

No need for congratulations to head R.T.O. I quit that one yesterday. I just can't put up with the liberals. I'm not quite as safe now, but I'm with my men, and 'thats' what counts. I'm glad ~~se~~ Reich is finally getting a little squared away. I was going to send him $50. for his birthday, so he could buy something nice for his car. As soon as I ~~can~~ can get a money order I will, so tell him to save a little of his own money in case he wants a nice set of Mags or something. Have him write and tell me who has my car, engine, ~~to~~ etc., and Just what the guys are doing to it? Is it still around? Did a friend of mine get it? ~~Case said~~ Tell him to write me and let me know what's happening with my ~~peeps~~ people, my friends? I'm always wondering.

I got a letter from Tauri the other day saying her Grandfather had a stroke and was in very serious condition. Tauri didn't seem to think he was going to make it. Of course, thinking of grandpa Story and how I knew Tauri's grandpa, I felt very bad. If anything did happen, I'd appreciate it if you would send Tanni some flowers for me and a nice card. Put on the card for me, "He was a wonderful man, and because of him, I'll never go broke.

Love always, Eric." Find out, I'm awfully worried, and feel very badly about it. Thanks much.

Well I've got to wrap it up because I'm out of paper.
I'll be home some up and write you more later. Be good, take care, and remember I'm always thinking about you.

w/b

Love
Eric
